Dear Students,

Welcome to third grade!! We are so excited to have you in our classes!! We know that you will have a great summer filled with LOTS of fun!!

We have heard from your second grade teachers what awesome readers you are and how much you have learned this past year. We want to encourage you to keep exercising your brain along with your body this summer.

This summer you must read the following two books: Third Grade Angels by Jerry Spinelli and Life According to Og the Frog by Betty G. Birney. You must also complete the attached book review form on each book. We have also enclosed a reading log so we can see all of the wonderful books you choose to read this summer. We suggest you read at least 3 additional chapter books in addition to Third Grade Angels and Life According to Og the Frog. You will turn the reading log, and your book reviews in at meet the teacher day, or the first day of school. The log and reviews should be signed by your parents.

We have provided you below a list of suggested chapter books. These are not required, but if you are looking for some great books, start here! We can’t wait to see you in August!!!

Sincerely,
The Third Grade Teachers
