Cardinal Blase Cupich

The Dynamism of Vocational Discernment

in the Life of a Christian

Saturday, November 17th, 10 a.m.

God loves each one of us and addresses a call to each one personally. Our vocational path, given to us in Baptism, is a journey which unites us to the life and death of Christ. Life itself is a vocation from God and all human beings are destined for communion with Christ and a universal call to holiness.

Join us for this presentation as Cardinal Cupich explores insights that were developed at the Synod of Bishops 2018 and helps us understand our vocational calling.

Cardinal Cupich has served as the ninth Archbishop of Chicago since 2014. Cardinal Cupich was elevated to the Sacred College of Cardinals in 2016. In 2016, Pope Francis appointed Cardinal Cupich to the Congregation for Bishops and in 2017, to the Congregation for Catholic Education.
